AS A WOMAN SEES IT Rheta Childe Dorr

Before the City Club of Chicago on April 23 Elsie Clews Parsons, the world famous sociologist, told the elite of the Windy City that society, in the fashionable sense of the word, was a passing institution. Its vogue was over, its reason for existence out of date. It never had any real place in a democracy except to satisfy the gregarious instinct of mankind, and other agencies had developed that much better.

Fashionable society, said Mrs. Parsons, was being sociologically murdered. Its elders were gone, its followers diminished. A man or a woman nowadays who claimed the right to be exclusive on the ground of superior birth or wealth succeeded only in being ridiculous. A person who advertised his or her social position was voted out of taste.

The forces that have given society its final stroke is feminism. Long ago interesting men refused to waste their time at fashionable functions, and now women of brains, talent and originality are boycotting teas, balls, and routs. Society's value as a marriage market is a thing of the past.

What is taking the place of the old social whirl, into which every girl of the leisure classes used to graduate as soon as she left school, are forms of association based on community of tastes, interests and needs. Communities are providing for the many such social opportunities as festivals, pageants, community and recreation centers.

All of which is entirely true, but too new yet to be fully appreciated. In the smaller cities the old fashions still rule to a certain extent, but the cleverest women are found in club work and the really bright girls are working for one or another social ideal and have no time for bridge or luncheons.

In New York the suffrage campaign has drawn into its ranks hundreds of women who a few years ago would have figured nowhere except in the society columns of the newspapers. Women who, when they had a prima donna in a sing to their dinner guests of old, treated her like a servant. These women have discovered that it is a thousand times more thrilling to help lobby a bill through the legislature than to entertain a duke. They would rather be invited to a supper club of intellectual men and women than to a million dollar fancy dress ball. Society in the old sense has nothing to offer but boredom. It never had. But people have only recently found it out.

HEPZIBAH CEMETERY IDEAL BURIAL PLACE

Free Excursion Will Be Run to
It Soon to Interest the Public in Sites.

While most Telegram readers have wrestled with the high cost of living problem, yet how many have given the high cost of dying more than a passing thought?

Suppose death should unexpectedly visit your home today, have you decided upon the cemetery or made any provision for a burial plot?

Do you even know that desirable burial lots in the vicinity of Clarksville are growing very scarce and that the cheapest are $250 and $300 each in the two leading cemeteries? The Odd Fellows' cemetery is almost entirely filled (and sold to Odd Fellows only) and the Masonic cemetery is fast filling so that at the present rate both will soon be full, and the lots there will be out of reach of all but the rich.

By the time the wage earner pays the minimum price of $250 for a lot, $75 to $150 for a casket, and $25 to $50 for carriages, to say nothing of the grave digger's charges and flowers, it means almost $400 at the lowest estimate for a very modest funeral.

It is safe to say that the average cost of a death and a modest funeral, including doctor bill, nurse hire, medicine, casket, carriages, grave-

ATE ONLY RAW EGGS; NOW FEELING FINE

S. D. Martin of Elkton, O., suffered with stomach troubles and difficulties in his digestive tract. He lost weight and his appetite was bad.

He took one dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and was swiftly restored—with one dose. Seven months later he sent an order for more, saying:

"Since taking your remedy I have not been bothered any to speak of with my stomach. Before I had had headaches and dizzy, weak spells, of which I am almost free. I have gained fifteen pounds since taking the one dose. It is not that I need the medicine now that I am sending. I am simply going to take it as a preventive. My wife induced a lady friend to try it. She had been eating only a raw egg or cracker or two, and often could not keep them down. This lady used your remedy and it has almost cured her."

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years'
Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell."

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

digger's charges and flowers is approximately $500. And how many families are prepared to meet this inevitable financial burden, or who have made any provision whatsoever for it?

A surprisingly large number of people have not even given serious thought to the selection of a burial place, and a still greater number do not own a burial site. As all must, soon or later, be buried, why do not it be a good plan to have the family plot selected in advance, beautify it and have it ready to receive the bodies of your loved ones?

In order to help meet the problem and provide burial ground at a price within the reach of the people of moderate means, the Hepzibah Cemetery Company was recently organized with J. E. Ritter, president; Hugh J. Lyon, vice president; J. I. Alexander, secretary; Ed J. Stout, treasurer; and Carl Lyon, manager, for the purpose of developing a modern cemetery at the historic old Hepzibah church, located on the traction line four miles north of Clarksville.

The grading and improvements have been completed and this company will soon place 280 very desirable burial plots on the market at prices ranging from $20 to $100.

It would be difficult to find a more ideal location anywhere for a cemetery. It is at the upper end of a beautiful little vale, on a gentle slope adjoining a grove of stately oaks which cluster about the old Hepzibah church, where many of our sturdy forebears attended worship three-score and more years ago, some of whom are peacefully sleeping in the church yard alongside the new cemetery, which faces the rising sun and has perfect natural drainage.

Those who have been exposed to severe storms while performing the last sad rites over the dead in cemeteries remote from shelter, will appreciate the hospitable shelter of the friendly church whose doors are open to all.

The Hepzibah cemetery is only fifteen minutes' ride on the traction line from the interurban station at Clarksville, and the regular fare ten cents. The traction company will run a special funeral car from Clarksville, or any other point within the ten cent fare limit, to the cemetery and return for $15, which is a great saving over the cost of carriages, even to the nearest cemetery, and is much more comfortable and convenient. It will stop at the entrance of the church and cemetery.

Another very attractive feature offered by this company to its patrons is that there will be a clause inserted in the deed to every lot, stipulating that a trust fund will be provided, the income from which is to be used for the upkeep of the cemetery, which will be sufficient to insure the cemetery's being kept in proper condition for all time to come, as the principal cannot be used for any other purpose whatsoever. It will be ample to keep the cemetery nicely sodded, properly fenced and provide suitable ornamental trees.

The company expects to run a free excursion to Hepzibah at an early date in order to give those interested an opportunity to see this desirable property and secure burial sites in a beautiful cemetery at a saving from $50 to $100 on each lot, under the prevailing prices for the cheapest lots in the old cemeteries here.

which she remained a faithful member until God called her home. An affectionate wife and mother and a most charitable neighbor, she won the hearts of all who knew her. Surviving the deceased are three sons, three brothers, one sister, and three grandchildren, which she raised from infancy as her own and a number of other grandchildren and relatives.

The sons are Hamilton, of Shinnston; George, of Fairmont, and Creed, of this place. The sister is Mrs. Elizabeth Wolfe, of Illinois. The brothers are Alonzo Hawkins, of New York, and Jedediah, of this place. The three grandchildren are Mrs. Grant Moore, of Lost Creek; James Preston, of Clarksville, and Miss Flora Preston, who lived with her grandmother until the end came.

The funeral will be held from the late residence of the deceased on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 and burial will be in the Bridgeport cemetery. Rev. W. M. Davis will conduct the services assisted by Rev. J. W. Ayers, pastor of the Simpson Creek Baptist church.

Mrs. M. D. Teter delightfully entertained the teachers of Wilsonburg school and some of the local teachers at a twelve o'clock dinner Sunday. It was Mr. Teter's birthday and the event was in his honor, although a complete surprise to him. The Wilsonburg teachers, of which school Mr. Teter has been principal the last two years, presented him a handsome volume of Tennyson.

Covers were laid for Mrs. T. E. Halpeny, Misses Vivian Ash, Mattie Israel, Harriett Lang, Audrey Jarvis, and Mary Robinson, and the host and hostess.

If Too Fat Get More Fresh Air

Be Moderate in Your Diet And Reduce your Weight.—Take Oil of Kerein.

Lack of fresh air it is said weakens the oxygen carrying power of the blood, the liver becomes sluggish, fat accumulates and the action of many of the vital organs are hindered thereby. The heart action becomes weak, work is an effort and the beauty of the figure is destroyed.

Fat put on by indoor life is unhealthy and if nature is not assisted in throwing it off a serious case of obesity may result.

When you feel that you are getting too stout, take the matter in hand at once. Don't wait until your figure has become a joke and your health ruined through carrying around a burden of unsightly and unhealthy fat.

Spend as much time as you possibly can in the open air; breathe deeply, and get from Bland's drug store, Farrell's drug store, or any druggist a box of oil of kerein capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night. Weigh yourself every few days and keep up the treatment until you are down to normal. Oil of kerein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, helps the digestion and even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight.—Advertisement.

AEOLIAN VOCALION

Take a record from Tristan and Isolde. Play it some evening for your music-loving friends.

With the first notes of the orchestra you will notice a new tone to the music. You are hearing real music for the first time from a phonograph.

Stand at the far end of the room and see how each note of the intricate melody reaches you perfectly.

Step up and take the Graduala in your hand. Soften the tone a little—a simple move of your hand will do it. Then increase the tone until it brings out the full force of those magnificent high notes.

That's what we mean when we say you can play the Aeolian-Vocalion. This is a pleasure that you have never had with the old mechanical, unchangeable phonograph.

But you can never appreciate how beautiful the Aeolian-Vocalion sounds until you actually hear it. A half hour's demonstration will be a revelation to you.

Come in and let us play for you your favorite selections. You can play the instrument yourself if you wish. No obligation will be incurred by a visit.
